01 Surf Rockets - Us and Them

Surf Rockets scanman@roadrunner.com

The Surf Rockets instrumental version of Pink Floyd's "Dark Side Of The Moon".

02 Chad Cote & His Corsairs - Gonzales

Chad Cote & His Corsairs jazzmaster64@hotmail.com

My version of the Shadows Gonzales which owes more to the Huntington Cads version that appeared on the Evening in Nivram by MuSick back in '98. Recorded in 2005, in my basement in 3 takes. The Corsairs finest hour!

03 Achtung Rakete - Oklahoma liegt am Meer

Achtung Rakete achtungrakete@web.de www.achtungrakete.de

Instrosurf with spaghetti western feel and a slight Maiden touch. Enjoy!

04 The TakeOffs - gOofY FoOt

The TakeOffs thetakeoffs@hawaiiantel.net www.myspace.com/thetakeoffs

Written by Ron Rhoades and recorded at Koloa Dub Lab, Kauai, Hawaii.

05 Hula Hoop - Storm

HulaHoop/Vivaldi mikemarshak@gmail.com <http://hulahoop.ru>

The "Storm" from "Seasons" by A. Vivaldi performed by HulaHoop - a surfrack band from Moscow, Russia.

06 Cutback - Shark Pit

CUTBACK frank@cutbacksurfband.com <http://www.cutbacksurfband.com>

An original tune we wrote about a famous surf spot just North of Florida's notorious Sebastian Inlet. The locals say the sandbar is shaped like a giant shark fin, thus giving it a great surf break. But others say the spot earned its name for the abundance of sharks that favor those waters. Enjoy!!!

07 Surfside IV - Malagueña

The Surfside IV (trad.) surfsideiv@rhodesdigital.com <http://thesurfsideiv.com>

This is a pretty straight, send-up version of Malagueña. But we happen to think it finds a certain groove. Enjoy!

08 Tim Oestmann - Deep Sea Creature

Tim Oestmann oestmann@picknowl.com.au
<http://tim.oestmann.guitar.googlepages.com/>

Surf inspired instrumental. As per my usual tunes, it's a bit eccentric and epic. I use Alesis drum machine, bass guitar and guitar and just a smattering of delay and reverb. Hope you like it. Remember to always face the ocean 'cause you don't always know what's out there...

09 Jeff Leites - Shootin' The Pier

Jeff Leites bb272@lafn.org <http://www.lafn.org/~bb272>

This is my first original tune. I used Band In A Box for backup. I want to thank Doug Forbes for a chord change suggestion, and our drummer friend Don Ross for coming up with the Title.

10 Mom_Surfing - Squad Car

Carol Busbey momsurfing@gmail.com <http://surfintheeye.com>

Living room recording straight off the amps. No editing or mixing. No bass, no drums.

RI deluxe reverb, RI reverb and AVRI jaguar, older princeton reverb, older strat. Casey Cash on rhythm guitar.

11 3rd Wave - Johnny Cash Medley

Folsom Prison, I Walk the Line, Ring of Fire. Live recording. '62 RI Jazzmaster, '66 Super Reverb. 3rd Wave is: Casey Cash - Lead Guitar; John Hanor - Rhythm Guitar; Joe Mitchell - Bass; Bob Walden - Drums.

12 Danny Snyder - Smooth Move

Danny Snyder snydr@sbcglobal.net <http://www.myspace.com/tomorrowmen>

Here's a demo I made that wasn't too well received by my bandmates. I like it though and want to share it with my friends here at SG101. This features my ubiquitous SR-16 drum machine, Jazzmaster into reverb direct into my hard disk recorder. This was initially inspired by The Kilaueas' version of the Django Reinhardt song Blue Drag, not melodically as much as the groove of the song. I hope you like it.

13 Norcalhodad - The Munsters Theme

norcalhodad

Home recorded (GarageBand) version based on Los Straitjackets arrangement. Danelectro Longhorn Baritone in the lead, Mosrite on rhythm, Dano Longhorn bass, Nord keyboard, Fender amps/reverb and one dozen petrified human skulls.

14 Aquatudes - Corvair 500

The Aquatudes bittelworks@sbcglobal.net <http://www.aquatudes.com>

This is an original tune by the Aquatudes. We're in the process of getting our studio act together and we recorded this track especially for the comp. It captures the raw sound of the trio with no added instrumentation. Personnel: Tom Bittel (noisydad), guitar & songwriting; Dick Bascom (drumsdick), Drums; and Fred Magetteri, bass. The arrangement is a band effort. As we nail down our studio sounds, we'll be recording a dozen of our originals to self-release in a few months.

15 The Official Surf Guitar 101 Theme Song

SG101 Surf All-Stars snydr@sbcglobal.net <http://www.surfguitar101.com>

Here it is in all its glory, the official theme song for our fair website. You hear it start off every podcast, now add it to your favorite playlists at home.

The music was written by Wannes Rombouts (WR) and Danny Snyder. The music was performed by Danny, Tony Bald (Tonybologna) and Ferenc Dobronyi (FD). Shouting along is Lady Reverb, Mel Waldorf, Jessie Waldorf, Karen Dobronyi and Stuart Brandt.

Recorded and mixed by Ferenc Dobronyi.

Enjoy!

16 Baine - Meet Me At The Alamo

The Baine-tones stevinne@verizon.net

My first surf guitar composition. Played on a 2000 Squier Strat, original 65 Jazzmaster, and Kent Bass run into my computer through a Zoom G1 Pedal. Drum loop from <http://users.telenet.be/roland.bettenville/main.html>

The title comes from our nickname for a Spanish-style home on the beach in Seaside Park, NJ, where I learned to surf with my friends Fred and Tim.

17 sammi - Psycronic Countdown ZH2

Sami Huotilainen latitudi@hotmail.com <http://www.myspace.com/ronnieandhistwanginlittlefellow>

18 katz-karnaby - night of the tiki moon

katz karnaby torres\_gene@hotmail.com <http://myspace.com/katzkarnaby>

Here is some new Katz Karnaby. Out here in Tucson we don't have the sea, but we have plenty of sand and plenty of cervesa which inspired this tune. Big thanks to Maggie from Velvet Glass, who also plays with Tucson's The Mission Creeps who provided the drums.

19 The Bookhouse Boys - Ed (Lynch Mob, Part I)

The Bookhouse Boys (Vincent Frank) mournblade1@atlanticbb.net

And they said it couldn't be done--fusing surf, rockabilly, and electronica ("cyber-surf-a-billy"?). Anyway, I wrote this song back in 1992(!), and have revised and re-recorded it numerous times.

Oh, and bonus points for anyone who can tell me from what the sample was taken!

Let me know what you think. And as always, be brutal--I can handle it.

20 The Sea Hunters - Moomat Ahiko

Stormtiger douglaspaulin@earthlink.net <http://www.myspace.com/theseahunters>

"Breath of the Ocean" in the Tongva language - the language of the native inhabitants of the place that became Santa Monica. I used my Telecaster (modified with Jaguar Trem unit) into a Hughes & Kettner Replex, RI Reverb Tank, ART tube pre-amp, recorded direct into a Mac using GarageBand. -stormtiger

23 The Coffin Daggers - Wake Up Screaming

The Coffin Daggers

"Wake Up Screaming" (D.Terchek)

by The Coffin Daggers

Recorded in 2003 by our old line-up on a Tascam 38 1/2" 8 track tape machine, and mixed onto an Ampex 1/4" 2 track machine at our own studio. Transferred onto Sound Forge, and Mastered on T-Racks.

24 Rob_J - Beach Runner

Rob Jones rjonesphoto@sbcglobal.net <http://rjonesphoto.com/retronauts.html>

An original, in which I play both the rhythm and lead tracks over a drum track made on a Boss drum machine, and assembled in GarageBand. I had initially hoped to record this with my band, but getting everyone together and getting it done in time for the deadline doesn't look likely to happen.

25 punkbuttons - Misirlou

Todd Jansen

New here at SG101. This is my version of "Misirlou". I've been playing guitar for 20+ years but i'm now becoming extremely interested and inspired to play surf/intro/punk. Let me know what you think.

Imagine James Bond with his beautiful companion....in a penthouse ...high above Monte Carlo, better acquainting themselves, while sipping martinis and enjoying the night air... Whoa!

31 Inkfink - Inkfink's 2008 Experiment

Inkfink jdetrich@excite.com <http://www.johndetrich.com>

While I'm still trying to figure out how to work these guitars and keyboards, my son (14 years old) just keeps surprising me with his drumming. He needs to form his own band! Here's a quick experiment we slapped together on the Micro-BR.

32 The Deadbeats - Hagbelly

The Deadbeats <http://www.myspace.com/deadbeats63>

A rough garage recording of the Deadbeats' very first ever original, a jaunty little ditty lovingly named... "Hagbelly." Hope you can stomach it.
